THREE DEAD.

Swift and Terrible Work of a Mob at Russellville.

ARCH, DINK AND BILL PROCTOR THE VICTIMS,

Cameron Bill to Recognize Cuba Reported in the Senate.

FIELD AND ADKINS AGAIN FACE A JURY AT BARBOURVILLE.

Russellville, Ky., Dec. 18.—A mob of 200 men entered the jail this morning and today the three Proctor boys are dead. The mob overpowered the jailer and shot Bill Proctor to death; they then took Arch and Dink Proctor out and hanged them to a tree in the edge of town. The town is ablaze with excitement over the mob's work. The mob did its work just before 3 o'clock.

People throughout Great Britain were considerably frightened yesterday morning by distinct earthquake shocks, which lasted from four to thirty seconds.

Miss Estelle May Davison, recently elected attorney of Brown county, Nebraska, was graduated from the University of Michigan. She received her law diploma from the University of Nebraska.

Sharkey gets the purse of $10,000. Judge Anderson, of the supreme court at San Francisco, dissolved the injunction restraining the Anglo-California bank from paying money. This decision was on the ground that the bank was in violation of law, and that the participants in it had no standing in court.

The Republican campaign committee will contest the election of W. B. Smith, the only Bryan elector, as shown by the face of the returns, from Kentucky. Gross frauds will be charged in the First district, with minor irregularities in others.

It is said that within a week notice of contest will be served on Mr. Smith.

The Lodge of navigation luff was passed by the senate yesterday by a vote of 52 to 10. It was so amended as to allow the admission of all persons from Cuba during the prevailing disorders on the island.

The measure excludes from admission to the United States all persons over sixteen years of age who can not read and write.

MACEO IS DEAD.

Now Admitted That the Cuban General is Dead.

Some Believe That Zertucha Fired the Fatal Bullet.

Lament Maceo's Death.

Limas, Peru, Dec. 18.—All of the newspapers of Lima have published articles on the death of Antonio Maceo in Cuba containing lamentations over his untimely end and saying that, while Spain is doubting her efforts to conquer Cuba, she is fast losing the little remaining sympathy she has in Europe.

People of Brazil are Aroused.

Rio Janeiro, Dec. 16.—A meeting to express sympathy for the Cuban revolutionists was held in this city, attended by 5000 persons. Senator Patricio spoke. There was great enthusiasm and a motion was adopted asking the government to grant recognition of the belligerency of the Cubans.

Hermann's Death.

Rochester, N. Y., Dec. 18.—Hermann, the magician, died yesterday in his private car at Great Valley, near Salamanca. He was on his way to Bradford. The remains will be forwarded to New York. Hermann completed an engagement at the Lyceum here in this city last night, and then later entertained at the Genesee Valley Club by a number of his friends. Death was caused by heart disease.

THE BURNING

Of a Spanish Flag at Lexington Will be Investigated.

Lexington, Dec. 18.—Secretary State Olney has telegraphed to the circuit judge here asking a detailed statement of the burning of a Spanish flag Tuesday night.

Nothing is known of what he intends to do, but the perpetrators are greatly frightened.

MARKETS.

(Reported daily by Lucy G. & Company.) Chicago, Dec. 18.—The Market today is very nervous on account of war news and the declaration of the senate in favor of Cuba.

May wheat opened at 79 1/2 and its highest point was 80 1/2 and closed at 79 1/2.

May corn opened at 25 1/2 and closed at 25 1/2.

May oats opened at 20, and closed at 20.

CAN'T FREE CUBA!

But We Can Do Our Part Of It.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING HELD LAST NIGHT.

The Most Prominent Men of the City Present—Effective Oratory.

UNEQUIVOCAL RESOLUTIONS UNANIMOUSLY ADOPTED.

A crowd estimated at two hundred or more assembled at the city hall, in the police court room, last night for the purpose of expressing the sentiment of the people of Paducah in regard to Cuban oppression. There was astonishing enthusiasm, yet the spirit seemed to be very conservative, and there was done nothing rash by the large crowd, which was at frequent intervals during the evening moved to almost frenzied indignation by the barking oratory of the Spain-denouncing speakers. The meeting was composed of some of the best citizens, all eager to lend a helping hand in liberating the abused and dispossessed sister Isle.

The speakers did not arrive quite at the appointed time.

There were some signs of impatience, and finally the big ex-chief of police, Mr. Gus G. Singleton, was called upon. He responded by calling the meeting to order.

Capt. Jas. Koger, an ex-Confederate, was elected chairman, and Capt. Ed Farley, an ex-Confederate soldier and now a colonel in the Grand Army of the Republic, was chosen joint chairman. There were prolonged cheers as the "Blue and the Grey" mounted the rostrum and took their seats. The members of the press were made secretary.

There were some signs of impatience, and finally the big ex-chief of police, Mr. Gus G. Singleton, was called upon. He responded by calling the meeting to order.

Capt. Jas. Koger, an ex-Confederate, was elected chairman, and Capt. Ed Farley, an ex-Confederate soldier and now a colonel in the Grand Army of the Republic, was chosen joint chairman. There were prolonged cheers as the "Blue and the Grey" mounted the rostrum and took their seats. The members of the press were made secretary.

Capt. Farley was loudly implored to speak, and although expressing himself as being unprepared, nevertheless made an enthusiastic speech that evoked resounding applause.

Major J. H. Ashcraft, when insistently called upon, expressed his regret at not being a speaker, but said he was for Cuba and would endorse the action of the meeting.

Mr. R. J. Barber followed in a brief address, and then upon motion of Major Ashcraft, Mr. Ed O. Leigh, Col. G. G. Singleton and Messrs. J. E. Wilhelm and J. V. Tiffet, was appointed vice-chairman.

In the interim incident to its departure more speeches were made.

Attorney Dave Cross made a ringing speech against Spanish tyranny and treachery, and was loudly and frequently applauded. During his address a Cuban flag was brought in and placed behind the chairman. It was greeted by round after round of applause.

Rev. W. K. Penrod, pastor of the First Baptist church, was the next speaker, and said that he was there to defend the Cuban revolutionists who were wounded.

He was as vehement in his denunciation of the Spaniards as his predecessors.

Hon. E. W. Bagby was called by the gathering, but was not present. Col. John J. Dorlan was then repeatedly called, and responded in a creditable address, comparing the oppression of Cuba to that of Ireland, his native home.

The committee on resolutions reported at this juncture as follows:

Whereas: The little island of Cuba is now striving for its independence and the right of self-government, a principle that is the chief cornerstone of this republic, and one for which our forefathers fought, being guided by the eternal principle of truth, justice and patriotism, Therefore be it resolved: That our hearts go out in warmest sympathy to the oppressed patriots of Cuba in their struggle for liberty. Be it further resolved: That we call upon congress and the president of the United States to take such immediate steps as are necessary to the recognition of Cuban independence. Be it further resolved: That we most heartily condemn the barbarous methods now being employed by the Spanish army as inhuman and unparalleled in the annals of civilized warfare. Be it further resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to our congressman, Hon. John K. Hendrick, with the request that he use his utmost endeavors in support of my legislation that may tend to carry out the spirit of these resolutions.

Gus G. Singleton, J. H. Ashcraft, Edw. O. Leigh, Jas. V. Gandy, Jas. E. Wilhelm.

Without a dissenting voice the resolutions were adopted.

Rector Reed, of the Grace Episcopal church, arrived about this time and was compelled to speak. His address was one of the ablest, as well as most eloquent of the evening, and the effect was almost miraculous.

One suggestion of his (Reed's) was that a Cuban headquarters be established here for the reception of money or other gifts to Cuba.

Congressman-elect Hon. Chas. K. Wheeler concluded the oratory. His address was very conservative

PADUCAH, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1896.

TEN CENTS A WEEK

PRETTY TOUGH.

A Marshall County Man in Jail Here.

CHARGED WITH A FELONY.

Sold Butter That Didn't Belong to Him.—Marshall Collins Has 'Em All.

OTHER POLICE COURT NEWS.

Joel Chandler, a well-known young man of near Calvert City, Marshall county, came to the city this morning with Bill Feeler. He left the wagon at Morgan's wagon yard, where T. W. Hooper and Alex Wallace, of near Harvey, also put up at the wagon yard, and had about twenty pounds of butter in a bucket which they intended to sell here.

Soon after daylight Joel Chandler walked into Mr. Louis Clark's grocery, on South Third street, and offered to sell a bucket of butter.

Marshal Collins, father-in-law of Mr. Clark, was present when Mr. Clark purchased it for $1.50. Chandler left, and soon after Hooper complained that he had lost a bucket of butter from his wagon in the yard, and Marshal Collins chanced to hear him talking about it on market. They compared notes and the conclusion was at once reached that Chandler had the butter and sold it.

Officer Jones promptly arrested him and he was assigned a seat in the "personals" dock this morning when court convened on the charge of obtaining money by false pretenses.

All the witnesses were present and Judge Sanders transferred the case to the grand jury without hearing any of the evidence. Chandler was chained to Officer Jones and taken to jail.

He was just recently married, according to reports, and stands a fair chance, from indications, of getting into the penitentiary in short order.

He was arrested here sometime since and broke out of the lockup. He had left his mackintosh hanging on a nail in the marshal's office, and afterwards had the "nerve" to send a friend to the city after it.

Marshal Collins this morning at court had man, money and butter—all three. He's pretty slick, the marshal is.

John Johnson, colored, did not shoot four times at "Doctor" John Johnson, colored, on Thursday night a week ago. At least the evidence indicated as much, and Judge Sanders said that he reckoned the old man who objects to being "rowed at" was mistaken in his very positive statement that Johnson shot at him. There is a faint suspicion that no one at all shot at him, and the evidence developed the fact that the "doctor" himself went out with an old pistol and snapped it ten times because a crowd of boys "rowed" as they passed the house. The case against Johnson was dismissed, and Judge Sanders stated that because of "Doctor" Johnson's lack of warrant would be issued against him for false swearing.

D. M. Kemp was fined $1 and costs for drunkenness. He was not in court.

A Pretty Window.

One of the most artistically decorated windows in the city at Wallerstein's, corner of Third and Broadway. Mr. Henry Schrotz, the popular clerk, is the artist, and the principal attraction in the window is a large elk, with electric lights for eyes and made entirely of gentleman's hose, surrounded by a pair of real horns. It is a thing of beauty and one that is generally admired.

See Stutz's fine display of Xmas candies, fruits and cakes—don't buy until you have seen them.

Justice Winchester officiated at a stylized colored wedding in the county court room at the court house about 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Jeff Carter and Laura Stanley were those who desired to exchange singleness for duplicity, or more explicitly to get married.

There was quite a crowd of their friends in the court room, who had been invited to witness the ceremony.

The justice deserves the couple as being as fine a looking pair as he ever saw, so he exerted himself to do the thing up in proper style.

He looked very dignified and spoke the solemn words. Afterwards the groom walked over to be congratulated, at which the bride remarked, "Humph, that man done let me ready."

"$1 is a good deal to pay for one woman, Judge," jocosely remarked the happy groom, as he handed over the required fee.

George Watson, colored, is the pretty one. He was in a negro cabin and fired the shot, as he claims, when he was drunk. At any rate he was arrested, and is now in jail at Covington.

Mr. John Nance, the blacksmith, had a go with an axe last night and was knocked out in the first round. He is still "Hors du combat," but reported improving.

Quite a number of the railroad men from both the I. C. and N. C. & St. L. seem to have caught the "Cuba Libre" fever and were present at the meeting last night.

It is reported that Miss Ollie, the daughter of section foreman Wilson was lately married to Jeff Lowry a former employee, at some point in a far away state.

Press Wilson, a former brakeman on the road, and a son of the section foreman at Westport, was married last night at that place to a Miss Saunders, a pretty and charming young lady.

The couple were arrested at the street car and railroad crossing at Sixth and Norton was unloaded yesterday. It takes two of them and as soon as the one for the street car company comes they will be put down. No doubt the patrons of the motor cars will bless the day it is done.

On last night's train among the passengers were several persons who bore quite a military appearance, and as they carried winches and had a stock of camp equipment. It was thought by a certain news gatherer that they were recruits for the army of "Cuba Libre." They turned out to be parties who were going on a camp hunt.

Conductor Fulton has lately enlarged his domain near Hardin by the purchase of an adjoining farm, and it is said he has his weather eye upon another tract. One of these days Alex will be too old to pull the bell cord longer, and then "how pleasant it will be" in a cottage, if not "by the sea," yet facing the main thoroughfare to the pretty little village of Hardin.

When the low, sweet "basso profundo" tones of the 308's whistles were heard on beyond the crossing last night as train 103 approached the city, it was readily recognized as the same melodious steam organ that adorned the dome when she traveled the rails under her baptismal name, "T. M. 100." Every engineer, fireman and shop man on duty was at the depot to inspect her and congratulate old "Dad" upon the return of his favorite, who looked a proud of her as a three-year-old kid in his first pair of red top boots. Old "Dad's" happiness was manifested in eulogies and encomiums upon her looks and improvements, which he said compensated for her change of name. Frank Schraven, heraldic beaver is not much on the talk, but his joy at once more feeling and nursing his "bandit" was expressed by smiles at child-like and bland as they were expansive and beaming.

John B. McDaniel was excused from the grand jury this afternoon and H. W. Wood substituted.

A motion for a new trial was made in the case of James Hardin, sentenced to one year and six months for malicious shooting.

One of the Goodwin brothers knocked the other down, and at first the audience thought it was a sham fight, but when chairs and lamps and other articles of furniture were used they concluded that it was not enough trouble, and the audience dispersed in confusion. There was no bloodshed, but according to reports there was everything else—but a show. The show was well received and the money was turned over to John Chambers, leader of the band. He stated to a Sun reporter this morning that the house was full, and that it is estimated to be worth about $40, but that he had lost $1.50 to account for. The man who took the office when he left, himself, claimed that one of the Goodwin brothers came in and raked all the rest of the money into a grip.

Meanwhile the performers on the stage began quarreling over their pay. They were promised it after the first act, but wanted it then. An overture was rendered, and then, according to one report, the performers entered into a general fight.

Local colored talent was employed and Wednesday the colored boys' band was employed to give a parade.

Attorney R. T. Lightfoot was introduced this forenoon and testified that he is an expert on handwriting.

The question under consideration was whether or not Johnson signed the bill of lading for the stolen goods, which were shipped to Evansville. Some writing was done by Johnson and the bill of lading was introduced, also the bill of lading and the evidence showed that they were written by one and the same man.

Johnson was not introduced by the defense, but this afternoon the work of
